Ship Overview

See India in a whole new way as you soak in the diverse wonders of the Lower Ganges aboard your spectacular floating retreat.

In the elegant East India Dining Room, your Executive Chef oversees an expert team using fresh local produce to cater for delicious dining experiences.

Wine and local spirits are included with all lunches and dinners, while daily cocktails, tea and coffee are included on board throughout your entire cruise.

Embodying the grace of the British colonial era, all suites are spacious and boast a private Panoramic Balcony.

With highly trained and experienced staff on board, you'll be treated with the highest levels of personalised service for which APT is renowned.

With the boutique Ganges Voyager accommodating just 56 guests, you're assured a gracious and personalised experience on board.

The Sun Deck's Governor's Lounge and outdoor Observation Deck offer panoramic views, while the Voyager Spa and Fitness Centre are sure to impress.
