DAY 4

Fair Isle, Mousa, Lerwick (Shetland Islands)

Travel to the most remote inhabited island in Britain, Fair Isle, where you'll join your expedition team for a guided walk. Formerly governed by Norway, Fair Isle is occupied by around 55 residents and owned by the National Trust. The knitting industry is an integral source of income for the island, famous for its world-renowned knitted wool sweaters. In the afternoon, traverse the tiny, uninhabited island of Mousa by Zodiac. See one of Scotland's most well-preserved prehistoric monuments, an eponymous broch. Continue cruising to Lerwick, where your ship will dock overnight.

Daily: • Breakfast • Lunch • Dinner

DAY 5

Lerwick (Shetland Islands)

This morning, wake up in the bustling seaport of Lerwick, Britain's most northerly town. Enjoy a choice of tours, followed by free time to explore the town and harbour at your leisure. Later this afternoon, set sail for the Faroe Islands.

Freedom of Choice – Meet the Locals

Embark on a guided tour, passing by the Town Hall before heading west to the picturesque harbour village of Hamnavoe on the Isle of Burra. Here, meet a local fisherman to learn about the significance of Shetland's fishing industry, and its historical and present-day impact. Later, visit a herd of Shetland ponies and hear about their history and characteristics from a local breeder. Afterward, relish a scenic journey through the spectacular Shetland scenery.

Freedom of Choice- Jarlshof Tour

Visit the remarkable archaeological site of Jarlshof, an extraordinary settlement with at least 5,000 years of human history.

Freedom of Choice:

DAY 6

Tórshavn (Faroe Islands)

Visit the capital and largest island of the Faroe Islands, Tórshavn, and choose how you would like to spend the day. Later, continue to the old farm Dúvugarðar, which is now a national heritage museum. Together with the outbuildings that belong to the museum, it provides an intimate look into past rural life in the Faroes.

Freedom of Choice – Day in Tórshavn

Head out to explore the old whaling station at Áir and visit Streymin Bridge, spanning the narrow channel of Sundini to connect Eysturoy with the larger island of Streymoy. Later, call into Gjógv, where you'll find a gorge which forms a natural harbour for fishing boats. You'll then savour pancakes and coffee at the local guesthouse.

Freedom of Choice – Visit Saksun and Kollafjørður

Choose to head north to Saksun and Kollafjørður, where you'll visit an old Faroese church with a traditional turf roof.

Freedom of Choice:

Give your holiday a personal touch with a choice of included sightseeing or dining options to suit your interests.

Daily: • Breakfast • Lunch • Dinner

Papey Island (Iceland)

Dock at Papey Island this morning, situated five kilometres off the eastern coast of Iceland. Here, you'll join your expedition team for a Zodiac cruise. Indulge in picturesque views of windswept, grassy slopes and rocky sea cliffs surrounding the island. The island is an ideal place for sea birds, particularly Guillemots which occupy Papey until mid-summer and Atlantic puffins abound until mid-September.

DAY 9

Grimsey Island, Siglufjörður (Iceland)

Venture across the Arctic Circle today with a visit to Iceland's Grimsey Island. Literally straddling the Arctic Circle, the island's basalt cliffs are home to countless nesting birds. Explore the area on a nature walk with your expedition team and soak up the views of the Arctic Ocean, which stretch as far as the eye can see. In Siglufjörður, spend time strolling around this colourful fishing town and enjoy a Signature Experience.

Signature Experience - Siglufjörður

Siglufjörður was once a bustling herring town with a gold-rush like atmosphere. Visit the Herring Era Museum and learn about the booming economy of the 1900s, which centred around the fishing industry. Enjoy a fun and energetic 'herring salt show', and sample traditional rye bread with local herring and Icelandic schnapps.

Signature Experience:

These all-inclusive, once-in-a-lifetime moments allow you to experience an unforgettable world of exclusive moments, incredible cultures and charming surprises.
