Cruise Alaska's Inside Passage

With 75 years of operation in Alaska, Holland America Line are the true pioneers of cruising in the region. Small enough to embrace those little luxuries, but large enough to house a wide range of culinary options developed by a team of world-class chefs and exclusive award-winning onboard entertainment, Holland America Line ships are refreshingly uncrowded and perfectly sized to cruise Alaska's Inside Passage and picturesque Canada and New England.

Ship Overview

Cruising on Holland America Line you'll enjoy a range of incredible amenities on board.

Take in the scenery from your stateroom's floor-to-ceiling windows or sit out on your private verandah for an even better view.

Evenings on board are filled with options to keep you entertained. Take in a show on the dazzling World Stage or enjoy the very best in live music at BB King's Blues Club, Lincoln Center Stage and Rolling Stone Rock Room.

Holland America Line's culinary experience is like no other, which means you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to onboard dining. Specialty restaurants include the Pinnacle Grill, Tamarind and Canaletto. Venues vary by ship, charges apply to specialty dining.

Unwind with a massage or choose from one of the other treatments on offer at the Greenhouse Salon and Spa.

Ship Features

Be Inspired

Glacier Bay National Park

As an authorised concessioner of Glacier Bay National Park, Holland America Line cruises venture through some of the 25 million acres of this World Heritage Site, giving you privileged access to the active tidewater glaciers that few cruise lines can claim. A National Park Service ranger and a local Huna tribe member come on board to uncover the science, stories and significance behind every breathtaking view.

Canada New England Cruise

On a Canada and New England cruise glide past incredible scenery and stop into historic ports and cities. Walk the grounds of significant battles and tour fascinating sites you'll remember from history books. Dine on fresh seafood in Maine and tap your toe along to a fiddler in Nova Scotia, or roam among the rolling hills, sandy beaches, and Victorian houses of Prince Edward Island.
